.Moving the family from the UK to France was intended to bring a new and better life, and to give two newly adopted and troubled children a fresh start. One Monday morning, everything changed; the whole family would fall apart in the instant it took for one little girl to lie. The female detention judge looked at the author and spat the words, You Monsieur Greene, are a paedophile and a pervert, and I have the authority to put you in prison for 20 years. I am going to make it my mission to do so. In a country where it is presumed children don't lie, it took three years to fight the archaic, biased French system and clear my name by law, but clearing my name with the French people was another matter. In this true story, the author tells how sometimes good intentions are not always enough. We have managed through our own strengths and that of our true friends to put it behind us, but I still, to this day,...
