Brand New Book  Print on Demand .WHEN YOUR LITTLE-GIRL DREAMS FOR LOVE ARE SHATTERED BY A SHARK IN SHEEP S CLOTHING, HOW CAN YOU ESCAPE HIM? CAN YOU EVER REALLY GET AWAY FROM THE TERROR AND LEARN TO TRUST YOURSELF AGAIN? Growing up in small-town North Carolina, Resa Goldberg shared the dreams of pre-pubescent girls everywhere - dreams of love, of happiness, of being carried away by her very own Prince Charming. But when Goldberg s prince arrived he came in a pickup truck not on the back of a white horse, and rather than charming he was criminally abusive. The physical and emotional traumas the fifteen-year-old suffered at the hands of this first boyfriend would mark her for life. In LOVE ME MADLY, a provocative and at times painful memoir, Goldberg chronicles her journey from starry-eyed teenybopper whose innocence is shattered to divorced single mom navigating the shoals of internet dating. Somehow, and despite considerable evidence to the contrary, she never abandons her abiding belief that not only does Mr. Right exist, but that he s right around the corner. Along the way she encounters a Rogues Gallery of boys and men who exhibit every conceivable male virtue and pathology, but never in a combination that adds up to her cherished ideal. Relying on her reporter s eye and an engaging narrative style, Goldberg s descriptions of these suitors and of her encounters with them are so finely drawn and ring so true that they re certain to induce either cringes or belly laughs, depending on the reader s point of view. The payoff at the end of the journey is an epiphany that provides the author an understanding of...
