For I listed in this army Not exactly to my mind; Bat my country called for helpers, And I couldn t stay behind. So, I ve had a sight of drilling, And have roughed it many ways, 101 And Death has nearly had me; Yet I think the service pays. It s a blessed sort of feeling, Whether you live or die; You helped her country in her need, And fought right loyally. But I can t help thinking, sometimes, When a wet day s leisure comes, That I hear the old home voices Talking louder than the drums, And the far, familiar faces, Peep in at the tent door, And the little children s footsteps Go pit-pat on the floor, I can t help thinking, somehow, Of all the parson reads About that other soldier-life...
