Somehow, forced by the conventions of his society and his father, he is forced to take up a proper career. With the help of a family friend, he enters politics. Now after eight years, the dream to become a writer still runs in his nerves, and he devises a plan-a conspiracy that would eliminate all the threats and, at the same time, get him out of there to achieve his writing career. He meets two friends in the process whom he uses, but life doesn't give everything so easily. The two friends have stories of their own, and finally, the young man is forced to make a bargain with destiny in order to achieve his goal. But he forgets that the true essence of achieving his goal is satisfaction and contentment, and in the bargain, he loses a lot more than he wanted. Will he be finally able to achieve that happy life? Read to find out.
