Improving your Senses: Smell When you learn to identify scents you will notice how important the sense of Smell is in your everyday life. It is not by luck that Smell is the sense that is closer to the brain nerve reactions than any other sense. We remember things very easily when we have their scent. It is a scientific fact! I hope that in this book, you will find lots of tips and ideas that can be applied immediately and be measured easily so you become a real odor expert! By Maria Markella, Researcher and Author.- Read what real people who reviewed this book say about its contents: Excellent guide to improve your sense of Smell. I will recommend it to all my patients J.Marsh MSc, PhD I like the way you give step by step information Maria. Congrats for this book! T.Marcelinho I loved the bonus chapter. The whole book contains solid to-the-point information. Anyone can apply the tips immediately. I Highly recommend this book. M.Edisson MSc If you want genuine tips and advice on...
