Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Seacoast National Park in Maine: Viewed in the Light of Its Relation to Bird Life and Bird Study With the opening of the Sieur de Monts National Monument upon Mount Desert Island - the first National Park east of the Mississippi - a large and important area has been set aside as a bird reserve. The significance of this new creation, moreover, can scarcely be overestimated; for, the lover of wild life, the scientist, and the farmer alike possess interests in the conservation of our birds. The principal causes for these several interests are three: Aesthetic, Scientific, and Economic; the first of which, in its broad appeal, is the Aesthetic. Our wild birds constitute one of the most beautiful and essential elements in nature. Without their abundant presence, the streams, the forests and the flowers - even the sky and the ocean - would lose their chief living charm. The imagination shrinks before the picture of a spring, no matter how lovely, deprived of the sweet voices and flashing forms of our early migrants;...
