Denckla Upon the Natural Resources of the Arkansas Valley: From Little Rock, Ark.; To Fort Gibson, C. N., Made to the Little Rock and Fort Smith Railroad Company In presenting this Report, the reader will bear in mind that it was written in great haste, and that it only pretends to give, in an imperfect manner, the results of a very hasty and superficial examination of the belt of country occupied by the lands of the Little Rock and Fort Smith Railroad Company. It was found impossible to do more than to go over the ground and collect such specimens as might be picked up on the surface or found in the hands of citizens, many of whom promised to send forward more perfect specimens, but not one of whom, so far as known, has paid any further attention to the matter. Such universal apathy as pervades the people of the region of country here attempted to be brought into notice is extremely unfortunate, and, it must...
