It is due to the gentleman addressed by that letter to state, that in acknowledging its receipt, he declared himself unable to perceive the applicability of a large portion of it to himself, the propriety of addressing it to him, or the object of so addressing it. The object of the letter was solely to invite his co-operation, as a co-Trustee; 1st, In enlarging the scope and invigorating the action of the College; 2d, In remedying the evils suffered by the College from its neglect of Physical Science; 3d, In preventing the exclusion of any candidate from the Professorship of Physical Science, on account of his religious tenets. The writer can see no breach of propriety,...
