General Accounting Office, 2003 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)52923373 Subject: Roads -- Maintenance and repair -- Environmental aspects -- United States -- States. Excerpt: . . . about 76 percent of the 17.6 billion in federal funding distributed to states for highway projects in fiscal year 2001 ) received categorical exclusions in 2001. In an informal survey conducted by FHWA in 1999, its division staff reported that it took an average of 6 months to complete the environmental review of projects that qualified for a categorical exclusion in 1998. FHWA officials reported that it takes even less time, sometimes as little as several days, to complete categorical exclusions for projects that FHWA has preapproved for limited environmental review ( for example, landscaping or installation of road signs ). In a survey conducted for the American Association of State Highway and Transportation Officials in 2000, state transportation officials estimated that it took an average of 8 months to complete the activities involved in environmental review of categorical exclusion projects that they had classified as not delayed. However, these...
