B uls are a group of mendicant minstrels strongly opposed to formal religious practices, rites, customs and scriptures who dedicate their entire lives for the realization of the inner soul or the moner m nush through the medium of music. Despite traditional B uls attempts to preserve musical purity, B ul music s contact with other musical influences has transformed it over the years leading to the production of a new musical genre known as B ul Fusion music two decades ago. This study examines the transformation of traditional B ul music into a new musical genre labeled B ul Fusion music.
